A Message From Your PRINCIPAL

To the Arts High School Class of 2020,

As you leave Arts High School, and you begin to embark upon your post high school endeavors, it is not too soon to begin thinking about your legacy. A Legacy is more than just how you will be remembered after you pass on. Your Personal Legacy is something that enriches your life. It reveals who you are, and what your life is all about to your family, to your friends, and to your community.

Part of the legacy of the class of 2020 has been thrust upon you. Most of you were born in the weeks and months surrounding September 11th 2001 when America was rocked by terrorist attacks, the likes of which we, as Americans, had never encountered. Fast forward to 2020, your final year of high school when the world you once knew has been turned upside down again by a world altering event, the likes of which we have never experienced before, and for which we are largely unprepared. COVID-19, the Coronavirus bulldozed our reality, exploding into a pandemic that has rewritten the rules and changed forever the way many things will be done. Normal is no longer normal; citizens are being called upon to find the strength to fight and to conquer this viral attack on us, on our families, and on our way of life.

But strength and resilience are nothing new to you. You are Newark; you are Arts High; you are #NewarkStrong and #ArtsHighStrong. Like trees digging themselves deeper roots in the time of storm, you are resilient when faced with adversity, you make yourselves stronger. Sometimes we don't realize the extent of our own strength until we come face-to-face with that which reveals our greatest weaknesses. Remember, what hurts you today makes you stronger tomorrow.

September 11, 2001 and COVID-19 will be two of the touchstones used by history to define our generation. Each of you, however, has the ability to create your own personal legacy. Rather than being defined by these tragic events, you can be recognized and remembered for your response to them, for your strength, and for your resilience: two qualities that define great leaders and with which great leaders surround themselves. Be in control of your own legacy, and success will follow you throughout your life. May God bless you and keep you safe, strong, and resilient.

Congratulations!
Mr. Pedro

ADVISORS

To the Class of 2020,

It might be hard to see the positive in your current situation or to understand possibilities that lie before you, but I assure you "this too shall pass." I, in no way, desire to belittle your current emotional state. You have the right to be angry, to be disappointed, and to be afraid. You even have the right to just be numb. The rights to your story, your experiences, and your emotions are your own. Still, I hope you will consider this one important question, 'What's next?'

First, you must remember that your high school career was more than these last three months. Before school closures and social separation, you played your role as a member of the Arts High School family. You walked into 550 Martin Luther King Blvd and created memories, designed on paper and canvas, filled with song and dance, challenged with drama; all to be archived in digital media. Most importantly, you created influential friendships that will stay with you forever. Don't allow those memories to be eclipsed by one passing moment in time.

Still, we cannot forget the Coronavirus pandemic. It took its toll and we lost a lot. Historians will write about all that was lost: the ceremonies, the celebrations, the connections, and the people. They will follow you and your classmates, curious to find out the effect of this pandemic on your social trajectory and your success. I ask that you allow this moment to inform you and not define you. Its lessons should inform how you look at family, community, public policy, and governmental structures. Yet, you should not allow it to define your impact on this world. You need to write your own story.

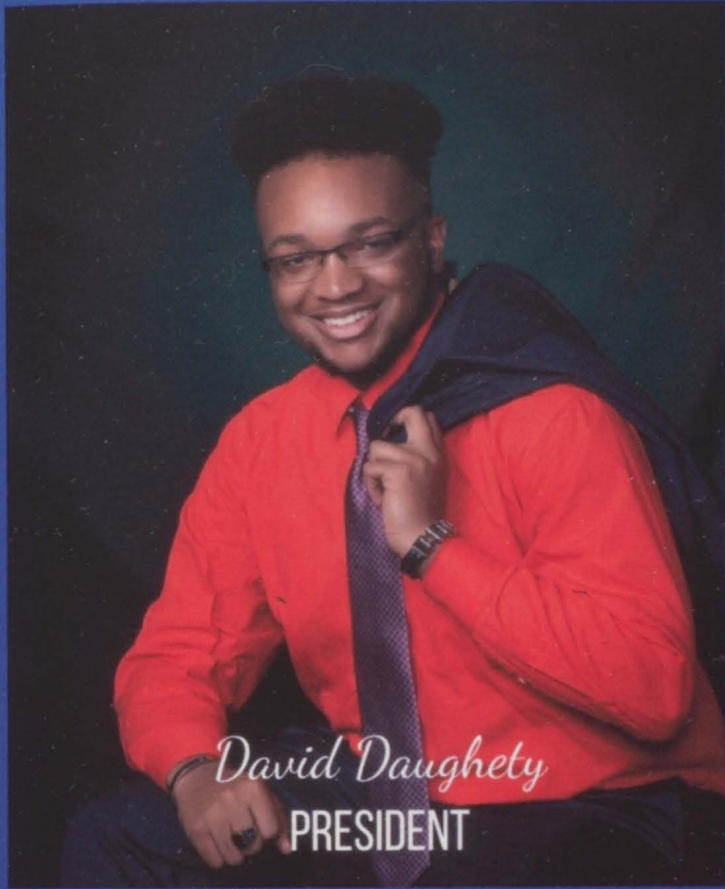

As you transition from student to alumni, make sure that your integrity is intact so that your legacy inspires. From one Jaguar to another, please work to make this world better than you found it.

Mr. Carney and Ms. Morris

The Few

THE EASY ROADS ARE CROWDED,
AND THE LEVEL ROADS ARE JAMMED;
THE PLEASANT LITTLE RIVERS
WITH THE DRIFTING FOLKS ARE CRAMMED.

BUT OFF YONDER WHERE IT'S ROCKY,
WHERE YOU GET A BETTER VIEW,
YOU WILL FIND THE RANKS ARE THINNING
AND THE TRAVELERS ARE FEW.

WHERE THE GOING'S SMOOTH AND PLEASANT
YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND THE THRONG;
FOR THE MANY, MORES THE PITY,
SEEM TO LIKE TO DRIFT ALONG.

BUT THE STEPS THAT CALL FOR COURAGE,
AND THE TASK THAT'S HARD TO DO,
IN THE END RESULTS IN GLORY
FOR THE NEVER-WAVERING FEW.

AUTOGRAPHS

A large, torn piece of white paper with faint, illegible purple ink smudges, set against a green background. The paper is positioned diagonally, with its top edge near the top of the frame and its bottom edge near the bottom right. The green background is a solid, textured color. The word "AUTOGRAPHS" is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the top of the white paper.
